25 S.A. Communist Party Anniversary on July 30: In Retrospect — 60 Years On

The Communist Party's struggle to reconcile socialist and liberationist aspirations runs like a theme-song through the whole of its 60 years and has united the revolutionary movement.

Yusuf Dadoo and Moses Mabhida

46 26th Congress of the CPSU: The Voice of Reason, Peace, Freedom and Socialism

The two delegates who represent the SACP at the CPSU Congress give their impressions of the proceedings — "for both of us a deep personal and political experience", and of profound importance for the whole world.

Bridge Mohan

57 Why I Joined the Communist Party

An Indian comrade who had been active in an underground unit of the liberation movement in the early 1960s explains the factors that led him into the Communist Party.

Phineas Malinga

60 Frontline States try to Break the Shackles

A number of African states are trying to lessen their economic dependence on South Africa, but the problem will only be finally overcome when South Africa itself is liberated.

A. Bakaya

66 The Psychology of Apartheid

What are the factors that led to the development of the racist ideology of apartheid? Is it a manifestation of Afrikaner national consciousness, a chauvinism bred of imperialism and conquest? What will happen to the Afrikaners when the principles of the Freedom Charter are put into operation?
